5 days from £554 Departing 28th September 2020

Day 1

We depart by private executive coach from our designated pick up point. En route to our hotel we spend some time at leisure for lunch in Stamford. Renowned as the 'best stone town in England', Stamford is architecturally outstanding with numerous medieval buildings, as well as fine Georgian streets and squares. This afternoon we enjoy a guided tour at nearby Burghley House, which dates back to the Elizabethan era. This largest and grandest house of the first Elizabethan age was completed by William Cecil, Lord Burghley, in 1587. We continue to the centrally located 4* DoubleTree Hilton in Lincoln for a four night stay on a half board basis.

Day 2

Our guided walking tour of Lincoln incorporates a visit to the Cathedral, a fine Gothic building dating back to 1088 and continued in several phases throughout the medieval period. Reputedly the tallest building in the world for 238 years, the eminent Victorian writer John Ruskin declared 'I have always held... that the cathedral of Lincoln is out and out the most precious piece of architecture in the British Isles and roughly speaking worth any two other cathedrals we have'. We continue to the Medieval Bishops' Palace, set dramatically in the shadow of Lincoln Cathedral and with a superb contemporary Heritage Garden reflecting its historical setting. This afternoon we visit Lincoln Castle. Built by William the Conqueror in 1068 on a site occupied since Roman times, Lincoln Castle has dominated the Lincoln skyline for almost one thousand years. The Castle is home to the Lincoln's own Magna Carta, one of only four original copies dating back to 1215, as well as the 1217 Charter of the Forest. Lincoln Castle is the only place where you can see the two documents together in the world, a unique opportunity to see the documents that shaped society as we know it today. The rest of the day is at leisure in Lincoln.

Day 3

We enjoy a guided tour at Newark on Trent this morning, home to one of the finest Georgian market squares in England. We then enjoy an included short cruise on the River Trent, introducing us to the town and its picturesque surrounding countryside. We continue to the National Trust's Workhouse at Southwell, surviving from hundreds that once covered the country and is the least altered today.

Day 4

Our guided tour at Doddington Hall introduces us to the much loved family home that has never been sold since it was built in 1595 by Robert Smythson, one of England's foremost Elizabethan architects. The mellow brick exterior with its walled courtyards has barely changed while the interior was redecorated in Georgian times in a light and elegant style. We continue to Gainsborough Old Hall. Partly brick and partly timber framed, this is one of the best preserved medieval manor houses in England. Dating back to the late 15th century with Elizabethan additions, the Old Hall has a kitchen with an enormous fireplace, a noble great hall, and an imposing lodgings tower.

Day 5

After checking out of our hotel and before returning home we visit the National Trust's Belton House, near Grantham. A crowning achievement of Restoration country house architecture, Belton contains important collections of paintings, furniture, tapestries and silver.

NB:- Please note we reserve the right to alter the above itinerary if required for operational reasons. Given the historic nature of the places visited, a certain degree of walking will be involved, and this holiday may not be suitable for those with mobility problems.
